The Biggest Automated Realtime CPI Marketplace

Clickky AdExchange API is a game-changing product for mobile publishers looking to monetize through CPI offers.
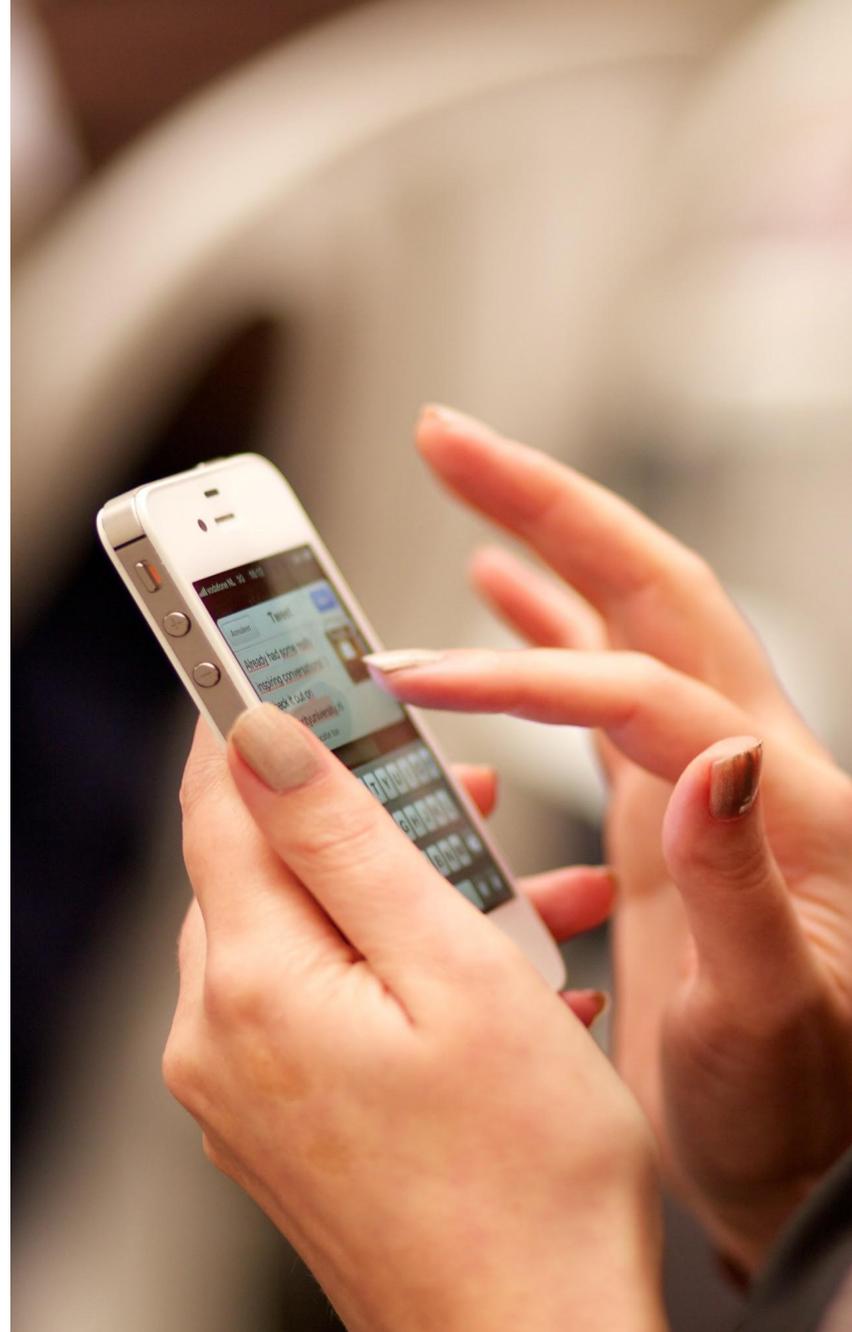

AdExchange API gives the ability to get mobile offers from leading global networks through a single and simple-to-integrate API. eCPM prioritization makes Clickky AdExchange API the best CPI Marketplace (platform) for publishers around the world.

The centralized reporting allows publishers to see how much money they are earning across campaigns.

In-house fraud protection solution enables auto detection and block of low CR campaigns.

Also publishers have the ability to sell their own inventory using the same platform.

Free yourself from the expense of manual work!
